Welcome to Young Investors Society! (YIS) We are so excited to have you join us on this Financial Literacy journey! The student welcome packet should help you as you navigate your year with YIS.

As always, if you have any questions, please reach out to our Chief Operating Officer, Christine Tobin at Ctobin@yis.org

Greetings!

I am the founder of Young Investors Society ("YIS").

Young Investors Society provides quality financial literacy education and programs to students from all backgrounds and socio-economic levels. We aim to teach finance and investing skills that will last a lifetime and empower students to take control of their financial future. YIS programs promote financial literacy, teach personal finance skills, teach sound investment fundamentals, and provide leadership and investment management experience for high-school-age youth.

I started YIS because of a letter that I received from a young man named Edgar. After visiting his school in inner-city Los Angeles and leading the class in an engaging discussion about the stock market and how investors pick companies to invest in, he wrote me the following:

"It's awesome to have someone give their time to teach us. Adults don't really do that anymore, especially for teenagers like me. You may think this is a joke, but your 45-minute presentation has changed my goals for my life. It has given me something to strive for."

That letter burned in my soul. Edgar's statement that "adults don't really do that anymore" became a personal challenge for me that led me to start YIS.

Why does YIS exist? Because we believe financial education in the United States and abroad is inadequate at best. It does not begin to prepare students to manage their personal finances, let alone make responsible investment decisions in adulthood. According to JumpStart, two-thirds of U.S. high-school students fail a basic financial literacy test.¹

YIS wants to change that. We offer a multi-pronged approach which includes school-sponsored investment clubs; beginning and advanced courses that teach personal finance & investment basics; annual stock pitch competitions; and our very popular Dollar-a-Day Challenge, as well as our CYIA® Designation. Our curriculum is written by some of the brightest minds in the industry and then packaged into engaging lesson plans and video content. We make the process turn-key for teachers, even those with little or no investment background. Simply put, we believe there is no other investment program out there as hands-on and as impactful to kids as YIS. We help kids learn, then invest, and then inspire others to do the same.

I thank you in advance, and I look forward to working with you as we invest in the future generation!
With best regards,

James Fletcher, CFA

Our Mission and Impact

Financial illiteracy remains a critical issue affecting millions of young people, often leading to long-term consequences such as debt, limited economic opportunity, and intergenerational poverty. YIS addresses this urgent need by offering free, high-quality financial education and real-world investing experiences to high school students worldwide.

Our programs are designed to be engaging, accessible, and impactful, equipping students with essential skills in budgeting, saving, investing, and financial planning. These tools empower youth to make informed decisions, establish healthy money habits, and build a path toward long-term financial well-being.

YIS offers a comprehensive curriculum of over 45 engaging, 45-minute lessons covering investing, personal finance, economics, and accounting. Each lesson includes a downloadable lesson plan, an interactive presentation, and a quiz to reinforce learning. The curriculum also features interactive online activities, peer-led discussions, and curriculum support videos. Dynamic video content accompanies each lesson and is available on our YouTube channel, including this sample support video.

Access Initiative: Expanding Opportunities for Underserved Students

YIS is committed to expanding opportunities by focusing on under-resourced schools and partners through our Access Initiative. This effort ensures that students from economically disadvantaged backgrounds have equal access to our financial literacy programs, with a strong emphasis on personal finance education and mentorship. Through this initiative, students receive not only the tools to manage their money but also the guidance and support of mentors to help them apply these lessons in their own lives. Currently, 17% of the students served by YIS participate through the Access Initiative. Learn more about the Access Initiative.

Cost and Accessibility

YIS programs are provided at no cost to students, educators, or schools. All curriculum materials, resources, and support are 100% free, ensuring that financial education is accessible to all, regardless of socioeconomic status.

Conclusion:

Investors can change the world!

We believe that when youth are empowered by financial literacy, they can become outstanding investors in companies, societies, and themselves, thus achieving financial independence and breaking the cycle of generational poverty.

YIS Student Experience (Pathways)

School Sponsored Clubs:

Students will have the opportunity to establish a Young Investors Society (YIS) chapter at their school as part of the official school club experience. Chapters typically meet on campus during lunch or after school for 45–60 minutes each week. In a fun and supportive team environment, guided by a faculty advisor, students will build life-changing habits around saving and investing for the future.

Each YIS chapter begins with core lessons in personal finance and gradually advances to more complex topics in investing. Students will participate in hands-on activities, complete lessons using the MyYIS Portal, and engage with peers. The club experience also fosters leadership development and builds essential life skills such as discipline, patience, and collaboration.

In addition, members of school-sponsored clubs are eligible to participate in all YIS programs, including national competitions, certifications, and service opportunities.

Independent Student Learner:

Young Investors Society is open to all students; no club or school affiliation is required to get started! Whether you're homeschooled or simply prefer to learn on your own, YIS offers a flexible, self-paced learning experience that fits your schedule. The program is fully web-based and accessible anytime, anywhere in the world from your phone, tablet, or computer.

Whether you're learning in a classroom or on your own, YIS is designed to be flexible, engaging, and impactful for all types of learners.

Best Practices for a Successful YIS Club Experience

Young Investors Society (YIS) clubs are an exciting and empowering way to bring real-world finance and investing lessons to life! Here's how many schools structure their clubs for a fun, impactful experience:

Club Structure & Leadership

- Most YIS chapters operate as after-school clubs, meeting once a week for 45–60 minutes.
- Students take the lead! Most clubs elect a Club President, Vice President, Secretary, and other leadership roles to help organize and energize the meetings.
- While a teacher advisor often supports the lesson delivery, clubs are student-led whenever possible, encouraging leadership, teamwork, and public speaking.

Meeting Format

A typical YIS club meeting includes a mix of discussion, learning, and fun! Here's a suggested agenda:

✔ Idea of the Week (5 mins)

Students present quick takes on current market news or trends (e.g., "What does Apple's new AI strategy mean for investors?").

✔ Review Pre-Meeting Assignment (5 mins)

Discuss assigned articles, videos, or presentations to set the stage for the day's topic.

✔ Main Lesson (20 mins)

Dive into the core personal finance or investing concepts using the YIS lesson plan and videos.

✔ Group Activity (15 mins)

Engage in a hands-on activity to apply what you've learned; this could be a debate, game, or team challenge.

✔ Wrap-Up (5 mins)

Recap the key takeaways and preview what's coming next.

Assignments That Bring Concepts to Life

To make the most of your club experience, students are encouraged to complete simple tasks outside of meetings:

Pre-Meeting Assignments:

- Watch a short video or read an article
- Prepare a short "Idea of the Week" presentation
- Research a company or market trend

Post-Meeting Assignments:

- Complete a quick quiz or worksheet
- Apply concepts to your stock pitch project
- Reflect on what you learned

YIS Student Advisory Board

Young Investors Society
Student Advisory Board

The Young Investors Society (YIS) Student Advisory Board (SAB) is a leadership council composed of high-achieving and motivated students from across the globe who are passionate about financial literacy and investment education.

The SAB provides a platform for students to take an active role in shaping the future of YIS by offering feedback, leading initiatives, and promoting student engagement within their schools and communities. Members of the SAB serve on subcommittees focused on outreach, social media, content development, and event planning. They play a key role in supporting major YIS programs such as the Global Stock Pitch Competition, the Dollar-A-Day Challenge, and the Global Youth Investment Summit. Participation in the SAB allows students to build leadership skills, collaborate with peers who share a passion for finance, and make a lasting impact on financial education worldwide.

Nominations for the YIS Student Advisory Board are held annually in June.

Student MyYIS Portfolio

MyYIS Portfolio – Learn, Compete, and Grow!

The MyYIS Portfolio is an exciting and interactive way for students to put their financial knowledge into action in a competitive, educational environment—all while having fun and challenging themselves against other YIS students around the world.

Students log into the MyYIS Portal to access their personal portfolio, track their progress, and see how they stack up on the Leaderboard.

How It Works

To build your MyYIS Portfolio, you'll need two things: Net Worth and Credits.

- Net Worth: The “money” you earn in the simulation (MyYIS Dollars—not real currency!) by completing lesson plans and their associated quizzes.
- Credits: Earned by successfully completing courses and passing quizzes. These help you level up in the program.

Your Dashboard

The Student Dashboard gives you a snapshot of your:

- Level (your overall progress)
- Net Worth (how much you've earned)
- Rank (your position in the YIS community) It also shows you which Course you're currently working on and which Levels you've completed, helping you track your journey toward becoming a more skilled and confident investor.

Why It Matters

YIS Courses and Lessons are more than just assignments—they're your pathway to mastering the skills and mindset of a successful investor. Each lesson builds real-world financial knowledge in a safe, supportive learning environment, helping you develop the habits and confidence that can set you up for a lifetime of financial success.

Courses Page-Your Learning Hub

The Courses Page is your central destination to access everything you need to advance through the Young Investors Society program. Here, you can:

- Complete lessons at your own pace
- View presentations that break down key financial concepts clearly and engagingly
- Take quizzes to test your understanding and earn credits

All available courses are listed in one place for easy navigation. Plus, you can download lessons, handouts, and materials directly from this page, so you can study anytime—even offline!

Whether you're starting a new course or reviewing past lessons, the Courses Page is designed to keep your learning organized and on track.

Lesson Quizzes-Test Your Knowledge and Earn MY YIS Dollars

At the end of each lesson, you'll find a short quiz designed to reinforce what you've learned. Passing this quiz is essential because it's how you earn MyYIS Dollars, which contribute directly to your Net Worth in the MyYIS Portfolio.

The amount of MyYIS money you earn depends on how many questions you answer correctly—the better you do, the more you earn! This system encourages you to fully understand each topic and rewards your effort and knowledge as you progress through the courses.

Quizzes are a fun way to challenge yourself and see how much you've grown, while also building your simulated investment portfolio.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

We are relying on you to help us know what additional resources you need to help YIS and your club to succeed. Please email us any questions and feedback at Contact@yis.org so we can improve YIS. As we receive questions, we will be adding to our FAQs, which we will share with you.

Q: How do I start my own YIS Club?

A: YIS has all the resources you need to start your own high school club. Please visit our website at: <https://yis.org/join-young-investors-society/start-your-own-chapter/>

You will find information on how to register, start your club, and our First Club Meeting Presentation and Recruitment Flyer. Each club will need 1 Teacher Advisor & at least 3 registered students to be recognized as an official YIS Chapter.

Q: Do I need find a Business/Economics Teacher to teach YIS?

A: No, many of our teachers have no financial background. Many teach other subjects such as English, Math, Science, etc. YIS is structured as a turn-key platform that anyone can teach. Most of our clubs are student-led and the teacher is there for support.

Q: How many students should I have in the club?

A: YIS would like to see 5-10 students per club. We have found that clubs with at least 10 students per club allow for team activities and provide a social network for the students.

Q: Does YIS take donations?

A: Yes, YIS is a 501(C)3 nonprofit organization and relies on corporate sponsors and individual donations to be able to provide our financial literacy programs. All donations are tax-deductible. Visit our donation page here: <https://yis.org/donate/>

Q: I have a mix of brand new Freshman and seasoned Upper Classmen, how should I structure the club?

A: YIS Suggests having everyone meet together at the beginning of the meeting to go over Idea of the Week Presentations, pre-assignments, etc. Students can then break into groups for the lessons and work on content in their groups. One group can work on the Money Skillz Bootcamp while the other starts on the Advanced Unit lessons.

Q: How many kids can apply for the Dollar-A-Day Challenge and FREE Money Match Scholarships?

A: We would love to see ALL YIS students apply for the Dollar-A-Day Challenge and FREE Money Match Scholarships. YIS plans to triple the number of students that receive the FREE Money Match Scholarships this year.

Q: Where do I get updates on upcoming events and submission deadlines?

A: YIS will email you regularly about our upcoming program, events, and deadlines.

You should also receive our Monthly Newsletter, which contains all important events and deadlines for submission. You can also visit our website at www.yis.org and follow us on our social media channels for important news and events.
